Deposit fees

>> Deposit fee

Fee for client's deposits in a defined volume (including), in the relevant currency	free of charge
Fee for client's deposits in CZK
Fee for client's deposits in CZK over CZK 100 million up to CZK 1 billion incl.	0.15% per annum <sup>1)</sup>
Fee for client's deposits in CZK over CZK 1 billion	0.3% per annum <sup>1)</sup>
Fee for client's deposits in EUR over EUR 10 million	0.5% per annum <sup>1)</sup>
Fee for client's deposits in CHF over CHF 40 thousand	1% per annum <sup>1)</sup>
Fee for client's deposits in SEK over SEK 400 thousand	1% per annum <sup>1)</sup>
Fee for client's deposits in DKK over DKK 300 thousand	1% per annum <sup>1)</sup>
Fee for client's deposits in JPY over JPY 5 million	0.5% per annum <sup>1)</sup>

<sup>1)</sup> The fee is calculated daily (actual/actual day count), if the daily balance exceeds the above limit on the aggregate sum of all current, savings, term, and deposit accounts and deposit notes of the KB client in the relevant currency. Term deposits with an individual interest rate and Trading deposit notes are excluded from the deposit base subject to the fee.

KB is entitled to charge the fee monthly. KB shall charge the fee, if any, monthly, in the currency of the relevant account. The fee shall become due and payable on the 5th Business Day of the next succeeding month. The fee may not be debited from the client's account after the last day of the same month. If the client has not selected a specific fee account, KB shall be entitled to debit the fee from any of the client's accounts at its discretion.

>> Deposit balance increment fee

The fee for an increment in clients' deposits where the total amount of deposited funds in all currencies amounts to no more than CZK 100 million as at 31 December	free of charge
The fee for an increment in clients' deposits where the total amount of deposited funds in all currencies exceeds CZK 100 million as at 31 December	0.15% <sup>1)</sup>

<sup>1)</sup> The deposit balance increment fee equals the base and a multiple of the fee. The base equals the difference between the total amount of the client's deposits as at 31 December of the relevant year and the higher of the following two values:

- An average daily balance of the client's deposits for the period from 1 October of the preceding year to 30 September of the relevant year, or
- CZK 100 million.

The total volume of the client's deposits as at 31 December of the relevant year shall also comprise all outgoing payments to other banks executed on that day or, if the 31 December is not a Business Day, on the last Business Day of the relevant year, excluding payments executed and, at the same time, credited to the payee's account kept with another bank on the last Business Day of the relevant year.

If the base is less than zero, the fee equals zero.

The base consists of the client's funds deposited in current, savings, term and deposit accounts and in deposit notes denominated in all currencies, excluding term deposits with an individual interest rate and Trading deposit notes.

KB is entitled to charge the fee annually. The fee shall become due and payable on the 5th Business Day of the following February. The fee may not be debited from the client's account after the last day of the following March. If the client has not selected a specific fee account, KB may debit the fee from any of the Client's accounts kept with KB at its discretion.

The KB middle exchange rate effective as at the day of the fee calculation is used for the conversion of foreign currencies into CZK and vice versa.

<sup>1)</sup> Fee is charged together with annual charge for the card. In the case of a card issued/arranged within a package, this charge is made separately.

<sup>2)</sup> For each card transaction at cash desk carried out within a month, customer will get back to an account in CZK the amount corresponding to the fee of one withdrawal from KB ATM he/she made during this month with the use of a debit card. The benefit does not apply if during the following month customer closes all his/her Current accounts in CZK. By the card transaction at cash desk, the bank understands transaction made by any type of cards (both debit and credit) issued to any type of account, of which the customer is a holder by the end of the month as mentioned in first sentence. The fee pay-off is to occur the following month on the customer's KB account in CZK. By the date of transaction at the counter and of ATM withdrawal, it understands the date when these transactions have been accounted (written-off the account) by KB.

<sup>4)</sup> In case of Profi Merlin property insurance, the fee will be returned.

<sup>5)</sup> Fee for issuing of card substitute after stoplisting is charged only for Microenterprises. In case of Merlin property insurance, the fee for issuing of card substitute after stoplisting will be returned.

<sup>6)</sup> This is the incoming payment VISA Direct or MasterCard MoneySend. A percentage of the fee for Express Payment on card ("Incoming amount") is calculated from the incoming amount on the day of its accounting treatment for the card company.
