Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Company Mr Albert M. Le Dirac'h has then announced that he obtained a report from scrutineers to which shareholders with shares of aggregate nominal value representing 81.45 % of the registered capital of the Bank are now present at the General Meeting. Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Company Mr Albert M. Rules of procedure of the General Meeting including the method of voting at the General Meeting and legal conditions of exercising the voting right are provided in the Articles of Associations of the Bank and the technique of voting will be repeated before each ballot.

Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Company Mr Albert M. Le Dirac'h has then raised a query whether there was or is being submitted any written request for explanation, any proposal or counter-proposal, or a protest relating to this item on the Agenda. This was not the case.

Agenda item 3 - Approval of the amendments to the Articles of Association of the Company

Chairman of the General Meeting Mr Pavel Henzl stated that the Board of Directors submits to shareholders a proposal to amend the Articles of Association whose text was contained in the notice of venue of the General Meeting. The full wording of the Articles of Association is contained in the draft resolution obtained by shareholders in the underlying material, they also have received the wording of the currently applicable Articles of Association with marked changes/amendments proposed in document No. 2.1 and the explanatory report to the draft amendments to the Articles of Association as document No. 2.2. All these documents were published at the website of the Bank on 27 December 2013 and were available to shareholders in the registered office of the Bank.

Proposed amendment to the Articles of Association is based on the new Civil Code, Act No. 89/2012 Coll., and the law on corporations and cooperatives, Act No. 90/2012 Coll. Under this rule of law, corporations are obliged to liable to adapt their statutes and Articles to that legislation by 1 July 2014. Given that this new legislation stipulates a liability to send an invitation to the general meeting together with all draft resolutions, the financial statements and the draft amendments to the articles of association to all shareholders at their address specified in the extract from the issuer's register, which would mean cost of several million for the bank, the Board of Directors decided to convene this Extraordinary General Meeting even under the old law (i.e. the Commercial Code) and to amend the Articles of Association thereat. This amendment to the Articles of Association governs the convening of the Annual General Meeting in way the shareholders were accustomed to, which is published on the Bank's website, in a nationally distributed daily newspaper and on the stock exchanges.

Pursuant to the Commercial Code, shareholders who intend to present their counterproposals to proposed amendments to the Articles of Association at the General Meeting were required to deliver a written version of their proposal or counterproposal to the registered office of Komerční banka at least 5 business days prior to the day of venue of the General Meeting, i.e. by 21 January 2014. Komerční banka did not receive any counterproposal or a proposal to amendments to the Articles of Association, so the only proposal on this item of the agenda is the proposal submitted by the Board of Directors.

Pavel Henzl stated that the General Meeting has a quorum and is competent to make decisions because as shareholders holding shares with a nominal value representing in aggregate 81.45 % of the Bank's registered capital are present thereat and the no protest against the exercise of voting rights was submitted.

He then asked Mr Peter Palečka to present the proposal to amend the Articles of Association.

The explanation can be provided in the form of a summary answer to several questions of similar content. The shareholder shall be deemed to have received an explanation also if the information was posted on the Bank's website no later than on the day preceding the day of the General Meeting and is available to shareholders in the place where the General Meeting is held. The above shall not apply if the proposals regard the election of specific persons to the bodies of the Bank. These individuals must meet the requirements set forth by the generally binding law provisions for the performance of their service. The Board of Directors shall inform shareholders of the wording of the shareholder's counter-proposal and the Board's opinion thereon in the same manner as used for convening the General Meeting. This shall not apply if the notification was delivered less than two days prior to the date when the General Meeting is held, or if the cost thereof was grossly disproportionate to the significance and content of the counterproposal, or if the text of the counter-proposal contains more than 100 words. If the counter-proposal contains more than 100 words, the Board of Directors shall notify shareholders of the core of the counter-proposal and their opinion thereon and post the counter-proposal on the Bank's website. A form of proxy is available to shareholders either in paper form at the Bank's head office or on the Bank's website from the day of publication of the Notice of General Meeting. The Bank shall make it possible for shareholders to send a notification of the grant of a proxy to a person appointed to represent a shareholder at the General Meeting or of the revocation of such proxy electronically. The notification must be furnished with a guaranteed electronic signature established on the basis of a qualified certificate issued by an accredited certification service provider. The vote shall not be further divisible. Votes shall be cast by ballot. The proposal of the Board of Directors or, as the case may be, the proposal of the Supervisory Board, if it convened the General Meeting, if any, shall be voted upon first. Should the proposal of the Board of Directors or of the Supervisory Board, if it convened the General Meeting, be accepted, other proposals shall not be voted upon. Other proposals shall be voted upon in the sequence in which they were filed. If a notarial record is to be drawn up concerning the resolution of the General Meeting, the Chairman of the General Meeting shall be obliged to administer the casting of votes in such a manner that a notarial record of the resolution of the General Meeting containing all statutory requirements may be drawn up.

Such request shall be in writing. The copy of the minutes or a part thereof shall be made at the expense of the Bank. The copy of the minutes or a part thereof shall be available to the shareholder no later than within thirty days from the date of receipt by the Bank of the shareholder's request, however, on the sixteenth day following the end of the General Meeting concerned at the latest.

(2) The Board of Directors may give an order to the person authorized to maintain the central register of uncertificated securities for registration of separately transferable rights to a share in the profit payable.

(3) The record date to assert the right to a share in profit is the same as the record date for a shareholder to be entitled to attend the General Meeting. The right to a share in profit shall thus belong to any shareholder owning shares on the seventh calendar day prior to the date of the General Meeting, which approved the share of the profit to be distributed among shareholders. The Bank shall not assume responsibility for the accuracy and completeness of the data stated by the shareholder.

(6) The Bank's obligation to pay the share in profit, in the event of a bank transfer, shall be discharged upon debiting the dividend from the Bank's account.

(8) The information on the proposed profit share amount and the information about the method of its payment shall be published by the Board of Directors in the notice of General Meeting and on the Bank's website 30 days prior to the date of the General Meeting.
