Deposit fees

>> Deposit fee

Fee for client's deposits in a defined volume (including), in the relevant currency	free of charge
Fee for client's deposits in CHF over CHF 40 thousand	1% per annum <sup>1)</sup>
Fee for client's deposits in SEK over SEK 400 thousand	1% per annum <sup>1)</sup>
Fee for client's deposits in DKK over DKK 300 thousand	1% per annum <sup>1)</sup>
Fee for client's deposits in JPY over JPY 5 million	0.5% per annum <sup>1)</sup>

<sup>1)</sup> The fee is calculated daily (actual / actual day count), if the daily balance exceeds the above limit on the aggregate sum of all current, savings, term, and deposit accounts and deposit notes of the KB client in the relevant currency. Term deposits with an individual interest rate and Trading deposit notes are excluded from the deposit base subject to the fee.

KB is entitled to charge the fee monthly. KB shall charge the fee, if any, monthly, in the currency of the relevant account. The fee shall become due and payable on the 5th Business Day of the next succeeding month. The fee may not be debited from the client's account after the last day of the same month. If the client has not selected a specific fee account, KB shall be entitled to debit the fee from any of the client's accounts at its discretion.

>> Deposit balance increment fee

The fee for an increment in clients' deposits where the total amount of deposited funds in all currencies amounts to no more than CZK 100 million as at 31 December	free of charge
The fee for an increment in clients' deposits where the total amount of deposited funds in all currencies exceeds CZK 100 million as at 31 December	0.15% <sup>1)</sup>

<sup>1)</sup> The deposit balance increment fee equals the base and a multiple of the fee. The base equals the difference between the total amount of the client's deposits as at 31 December of the relevant year and the higher of the following two values:

- an average daily balance of the client's deposits for the period from 1 October of the preceding year to 30 September of the relevant year, or
- CZK 100 million.

The total volume of the client's deposits as at 31 December of the relevant year shall also comprise all outgoing payments to other banks executed on that day or, if the 31 December is not a Business Day, on the last Business Day of the relevant year, excluding payments executed and, at the same time, credited to the payee's account kept with another bank on the last Business Day of the relevant year.

If the base is less than zero, the fee equals zero.

The base consists of the client's funds deposited in current, savings, term and deposit accounts and in deposit notes denominated in all currencies, excluding term deposits with an individual interest rate and Trading deposit notes.

KB is entitled to charge the fee annually. The fee shall become due and payable on the 5th Business Day of the following February. The fee may not be debited from the client's account after the last day of the following March. If the client has not selected a specific fee account, KB may debit the fee from any of the Client's accounts kept with KB at its discretion.

The KB middle exchange rate effective as at the day of the fee calculation is used for the conversion of foreign currencies into CZK and vice versa.

Merchant is not obliged to pay the Monthly price from the day of respective payment terminal installation till the end of the following second calendar month.

<sup>1)</sup> The monthly price is given according to the turnover level reached by means of payment cards on the particular payment terminal, or internet payment gateway. All transactions recorded by the Bank from the first till the last day of the respective calendar month are included into the turnover.

For the price setting it is considered

- level of turnover reached by means of payment cards in the respective calendar month or
  - average level of turnover reached by means of payment cards for the previous three months (for the seasonality reason).
- The higher of the two turnovers is always used.

<sup>1)</sup> Third person is a person, who is not holder of the account or person not stated in specimen signature to the account, to which the cash is deposited, or who does not have a money order with stamp of account holder's company, into which the cash is deposited. Third person pays the fee in cash.

<sup>2)</sup> In case of a mixed deposit of banknotes and coins in EUR, such a deposit is entered in two items (banknotes and coins separately), if the mixed deposit comprises more than 10 pieces of coins. Concerning the deposit over the counter a client submits two money orders, or communicates two deposit requests. For deposit by means of enclosed wrapping or night vault the client inserts two money orders into the enclosed wrapping to make a deposit of banknotes and coins. If not, the deposit is considered to be a deposit of coins. Mixed deposit including lower number of coins is entered as deposit of banknotes, which are generally traded.

<sup>3)</sup> If the sum of cash transactions executed by the owner and/or a third party to the debit/credit of client's all current accounts exceeds CZK 5 million or foreign currency equivalent per calendar month, we will charge you, in the following month, 0.15% of the aggregate amount exceeding the limit. Cash transactions mean deposits and withdrawals made over the counter or in sealed envelopes, through night safes, and/or through KB ATMs, including cashed cheques.

KB is entitled to charge a monthly fee in the currency of the relevant account, which will fall due on the 5th business day of the following month, and to debit it from the client's account no later than the last day of the same month. If the client has not set aside any account from which to debit the fees, the Bank will debit the fee from any of client's accounts upon its discretion. If the fee is debited from a foreign currency account, KB's mean exchange rate effective on the last calendar day of the month for which the fee is calculated will be used for converting the fee from CZK.

Credits

Rules for setting and fee collection, stated in "Business loans in general", are valid for all business loans if not stated differently.

In case of business cases in foreign currency, the fees calculated in foreign currency are to be paid in CZK. For the respective conversion of fee to CZK, "foreign currency sale" rate according to "KB Exchange List", valid on date of settlement from client's account, shall be used.

The only exception is the fee for processing and evaluation of a loan application, fee for credit realization and fee for funds reservation, where the fee may be paid in the same currency as the loan is provided (calculated fixed fee in CZK will be calculated according to "foreign currency sale" rate and a fee in % from loan amount will be calculated in the currency of the loan).

General information

1. A fee for bank services will be collected in accordance with an agreement concerning the fee concluded between KB and a client. Simultaneously with the collected fee a client is to pay a value added tax in case of taxable items of the Price list at the amount stated by the Law no. 235/2004 Coll., as amended. The basis for the calculation of the value added tax is the total amount in accordance with the Price list.
  - a. In terms of settlements from abroad in foreign currencies and CZK, as well as domestic settlements in a foreign currency outside of KB, a client is going to receive the full amount of the settlement in case it is a payment carried out without expenses for the recipient (payment "OUR"). If the minimum fee exceeds the payment itself, the fee is not charged (this does not apply for "small payment" - see small payment, one payment per month for a client in equivalent to CZK 10,000 and SEPA Direct Debit).
  - b. In case of remittance abroad in CZK and foreign currency and inland remittances in a foreign currency outside KB, a client shall pay the price in accordance to the selected type of fee.
  - c. In case of remittances abroad in CZK and foreign currency and inland remittances in a foreign currency outside KB marked BEN or SHA the Client shall pay additional costs of other banks, which have been charged to KB (in case of small amount remittances).
  - d. SEPA payments submitted in paper form are processed accordingly express no extra charge for speed.
  - e. The price of payment from abroad and to other countries is calculated with the use of "average" KB exchange rate.
3. In addition to the fees stated in this Price list, KB is also authorized to charge to a client potential additional expenses required by other banks in connection to the payment transactions and provided bank services, postage, and communication expenses. KB is also authorized, in addition to fees listed in this Price list, to charge to a client a compensation of all the fees settled to an administrative or other authority (e.g. a fee for an abstract from the Companies Register, an abstract from the evidence of the population, etc.) in terms of the necessary finding or verification of identification or other similar data (especially if a client does not report a change of the domicile, change of data registered in the Companies Register, if KB unofficially learns of a decease of a client, etc.).
4. If in the individual contracts concerning providing services concluded between a client and the Bank the terms remuneration, fee or remittance are mentioned, it is deemed to be the price in accordance to this Pricelist.
5. In case of fees collected in cash in CZK, the collected amount of the fee shall be rounded to the closest valid nominal value of legal currency in circulation.
6. Bank accepts coins only in CZK and EUR.
7. In case there are more fees applicable to cash banking operation to book for the service on a day of operation, the Bank will charge only the highest one to a client.

The services not shown in this "Price list for Entrepreneurs, enterprises and municipalities at branch service" will be provided to a client from this segment for the price stated for this service or this product in the "Price list for enterprises and municipalities served by Corporate and Business Divisions". Prices for all related services to the product will be charged also according to the "Price list for enterprises and municipalities served by Corporate and Business Divisions", where the product is stated.
