Article V Rights and Obligations of Shareholders

Section 5

(1) Both legal entities and natural persons (individuals) may become shareholders of the Bank.

(2) Any shareholder is entitled to attend the General Meeting and to vote thereat, to request and receive explanation regarding matters concerning the Bank or entities controlled by the Bank, if such explanation is necessary for the assessment of the content of the matters included in the General Meeting agenda or for the exercise of his shareholder rights thereat. The explanation can be provided in the form of a summary answer to several questions of similar content. The shareholder shall be deemed to have received an explanation also if the information was posted on the Bank's website no later than on the day preceding the day of the General Meeting and is available to shareholders in the place where the General Meeting is held. Any shareholder is entitled to file proposals or counter-proposals to matters included in the General Meeting agenda. Should a shareholder intend to file a counter-proposal to matters included in the General Meeting agenda, he shall deliver the counter-proposal to the Bank in reasonable time prior to the General Meeting, however, no later than 10 days prior to the General Meeting. The above shall not apply provided that the proposals regard the election of specific persons to the bodies of the Bank. These individuals must meet the requirements set forth by the generally binding legal regulations for the performance of their service. The Board of Directors shall inform shareholders of the wording of the shareholder's counter-proposal and the Board's opinion thereon in the same manner as used for convening the General Meeting. This shall not apply if the notification was delivered less than two days prior to the date when the General Meeting is held, or if the cost thereof was grossly disproportionate to the significance and content of the counterproposal, or if the text of the counter-proposal contains more than 100 words. If the counter-proposal contains more than 100 words, the Board of Directors shall notify shareholders of the core of the counter-proposal and their opinion thereon and post the counter-proposal on the Bank's website. Any shareholder has the right to make proposals regarding matters which will be included in the agenda of the General Meeting also before the publication of the Notice of General Meeting. The Board of Directors shall publish each proposal that will be delivered to the Bank no later than seven days prior to the publication of the Notice of General Meeting and their opinion thereon together with such Notice.

(3) The shareholders shall be entitled to exercise their rights at the General Meeting either in person or through a natural person or legal entity (a proxy) under the terms and conditions specified by law (hereinafter referred to as "the Attending Shareholder"). The proxy must be in writing and must show whether it may be used by the proxy holder to represent the principal at one or more General Meetings. A form of proxy is available to shareholders either in paper form at the Bank's head office or on the Bank's website from the day of publication of the Notice of General Meeting. The Bank shall make it possible for shareholders to send a notification of the grant of a proxy to a person appointed to represent a shareholder at the General Meeting or of the revocation of such proxy electronically. The notification must be furnished with a guaranteed electronic signature established on the basis of a qualified certificate issued by an accredited certification service provider. Should a notification fail to allow the Bank to make a clear identification of the signatory, the Bank shall have a right to request that the notifier indicate the certification service provider that issued his certificate and that keeps his records, or that the notifier attach the certificate to the notification and give consent to the disclosure of his personal data by the certification service provider, so that the Bank may verify his identity. Should the verification of the notifier's identity not be possible, the shareholder's proxy must submit his proxy upon registration at the General Meeting. This fact shall be notified to the notifier by the Bank, if possible, to the e-mail address indicated by the notifier. The details on the receipt of such notifications and the requirements with respect to their content shall be specified by the Board of Directors on the Bank's website www.kb.cz. When being registered as present at the General Meeting, the shareholders shall provide evidence of their identity by means of an identity document. In addition, a member of a governing body of a shareholder that is a legal entity shall also submit an up-to-date excerpt from the relevant public register or another document evidencing his right to act on behalf of the company concerned, When being registered as present at the General Meeting, the shareholder's proxy shall provide evidence of his identity by means of an identity document and shall submit a written proxy, unless the law provides otherwise. A person registered with the uncertificated securities registry as an administrator or as a person authorized to exercise rights attached to a share does not need to submit a proxy. A representative, whose right to represent a shareholder arises from a fact other than a proxy, is obliged to provide evidence of this fact.

(4) The General Meeting may be attended by any shareholder registered in the statutory register of securities as a owner of shares of the Bank as of the seventh calendar day prior to the date of the General Meeting (i.e. the decisive date for the right of the shareholder to attend the General Meeting). The Bank's Board of Directors shall place an application for an excerpt from the statutory register of securities as of the decisive date. Persons that are designated by the CNB in the statutory register of securities, persons not mentioned therein, or persons empowered by these persons may not attend the General Meeting.

(5) The voting right belonging to a shareholder is governed by the nominal value of their shares; each CZK 100 of the nominal value of the shares shall represent one vote. The vote shall not be further divisible. Each shareholder present at the general meeting shall vote using an electronic voting device; the Board of Directors may decide in justified cases that votes shall be cast by ballot. The Board of Directors' proposal or, as the case may be and if the General Meeting was convened by the Supervisory Board, the Supervisory Board's proposal, if any, shall be put to the vote first. Should the proposal of the Board of Directors or of the Supervisory Board, if the General Meeting was convened by the Supervisory Board, be carried, other proposals shall not be put to the vote. If the proposal is not carried, the other proposals shall be put to the vote in the order in which they were filed. If a notarized record is to be drawn up concerning a resolution of the General Meeting, the Chairman of the General Meeting shall be obliged to manage the vote in a way allowing making the notarized record of the General Meeting resolution with all the elements required by statute.

(6) Any requests for explanation shall be made by the Attending Shareholder orally upon invitation by the Chairman of the General Meeting or in writing and placed at a designated place. Each shareholder has a limited time to present his proposal; the time limit shall be 10 minutes maximum. Any shareholder's proposal or counterproposal made in writing may be presented by the Chairman of the General Meeting. The Chairman of the General Meeting shall be obliged to ensure that all requests for explanation of matters be answered, as long as such matters form the subject of the agenda of the General Meeting and the requests are made in the course of the General Meeting in accordance with these Articles of Association. If an explanation cannot be provided due to its complexity, it shall be provided to shareholders within 15 days of the day of the General Meeting. The wording of the answer shall be available to shareholders on the Bank's website. Any Attending Shareholder shall be entitled to request that the minutes clerk of the General Meeting include a protest concerning a resolution of the General Meeting in the minutes of the General Meeting.

(7) The right to receive a share of the profit, the pre-emptive right to subscribe for shares and convertible and priority bonds and the right to an interest in the liquidation balance otherwise associated with a share may be transferred separately.

(8) The shareholder or shareholders of the Bank holding shares the total nominal value of which reaches at least 1 % of the Bank's registered capital may:

- a) request that the Board of Directors convene a General Meeting in order to discuss the matters proposed by them, provided that each item of the proposal is accompanied with a draft resolution or with a justification;
- b) request that the Board of Directors include issues specified in their request in the agenda of the General Meeting, provided that each item also includes a draft resolution or that its inclusion is justified;
- c) request that the Supervisory Board examine the exercise of powers by the Board of Directors with regard to the matters specified in the request;
- d) under the conditions set forth by the Corporations Act seek on behalf of the Bank a compensation for loss from a member of the Board of Directors or of the Supervisory Board or the discharge of their possible duty arising from an agreement for the settlement of loss incurred by the Bank due to a breach of the duty of due care or the payment of the issue price from a shareholder who is in default of its payment, and to represent the Bank in such proceedings;
- e) apply to a court of justice for the appointment of an expert in order to examine the report on relations between the controlling entity and the controlled entity and between the controlled entity and the entities controlled by the same controlling entity (hereinafter called "the report on relations"), should he believe that the report on relations was not worked out duly;
- f) seek a compensation for loss from an influential person if such person causes loss to the Bank.

(9) No shareholder shall be entitled to demand that the investments the shareholder invested in the Bank in order to acquire or increase their holding in the Bank be returned either in the course of the Bank's existence or upon its winding up. However, in the event of the Bank's dissolution and subsequent liquidation, the shareholders shall have the right to an adequate interest in the liquidation balance of the Bank.

(10) Any shareholder shall be entitled to ask the Board of Directors to produce a copy of the minutes of any General Meeting or a part thereof throughout the Bank's existence. Such request shall be in writing. The copy of the minutes or a part thereof shall be made at the expense of the Bank. The copy of the minutes or a part thereof shall be available to the shareholder no later than within thirty days from the date of receipt by the Bank of the shareholder's request, however, not earlier than on the sixteenth day following the end of the General Meeting concerned.

Section 5a

Correspondence Voting

(1) Furthermore, each shareholder has a right to vote before the day of the general meeting under the conditions set forth by these Articles of Association and the legislation (hereinafter called "correspondence voting"). To cast a vote by correspondence, the voter either returns his vote-by-mail ballot or votes via a remote e-voting platform allowing the shareholder's identification; the bank shall create remote access to the platform for the shareholder upon his request. The way selected by the shareholder to cast his vote by correspondence cannot be changed once it becomes effective against the bank.

(2) Voting by correspondence is admitted subject to the following conditions:

- a) The bank's Board of Directors shall decide on the possibility of using correspondence voting before the specific general meeting and state the conditions of such voting in the notice of general meeting.
- b) The shareholder shall exercise his voting right by casting his vote by correspondence at the time set by the bank's Board of Directors in the notice of general meeting.
- c) The correspondence voting meets all the other prerequisites set by these Articles of Association and stated in the notice of general meeting.

(3) If a shareholder casts his vote using a vote-by-mail ballot (hereinafter called the "ballot"), he shall state the following information in the ballot:

- a) his name and surname, date of birth and place of residence if the shareholder is a natural person, or its name or trade name, its registered office and its identification number if the shareholder is a legal entity. If the vote is cast by a shareholder's proxy, the proxy shall state the information as per the previous sentence on itself and on the represented shareholder; and
- b) the proposal that is being put to the vote and the way the shareholder is voting on the proposal. If the ballot pertaining to a proposal does not show the way the shareholder voted, the shareholder shall be deemed to have abstained from voting on this proposal.

(4) The shareholder's or the shareholder's proxy's signature on the ballot shall be officially attested. A shareholder's tied agent shall enclose to the ballot a written proxy bearing the shareholder's officially-attested signature. The enclosure of the written proxy shall not be required if the right to represent the shareholder arises from the extract from the issue of uncertificated securities..

(5) A legal entity which is a shareholder or a shareholder's proxy shall enclose to the ballot the original or a certified copy of a statement from the register of companies or another document proving the legal entity's existence and the way the members of its governing body act on the legal entity's behalf. If the shareholder is represented by a legal entity and there is no governing body member acting on the legal entity's behalf, the person acting on its behalf shall enclose to the ballot an instrument proving such person's right to act on behalf of the shareholder's proxy.

(6) Any instruments executed by foreign authorities or institutions or procured with their certification clauses and attached to the ballot must be procured with an apostille or another type of certification or authentication required for such foreign instruments by Czech authorities in official communication. Should such instruments, certifications or authentications be executed in a foreign language, they must also be procured with a certified translation into the Czech language.

(7) A vote cast by correspondence using a vote-by-mail ballot becomes effective against the bank upon delivery of the ballot to the address of the bank's registered office.

(8) Each shareholder casting his vote by correspondence using a remote e-voting platform allowing the shareholder's identification shall proceed in accordance with the rules for the use of this platform approved by the bank's Board of Directors; these shall be posted on the bank's website and also stated in the notice of general meeting.

(9) Regardless of the way selected to vote by correspondence, a shareholder shall be considered present at the general meeting and his votes shall be counted towards the total number of votes and towards the individual voting rounds at the general meeting only if he was a shareholder of the bank as of the record date. Nevertheless, shareholders can also vote by correspondence before the record date or, as the case may be, even after the record date; their vote by correspondence will, however, be taken into account only if such vote becomes effective against the bank by the time stated in the notice of general meeting.

(10) To ascertain whether the general meeting has a quorum and whether a given resolution was carried, it is deemed that the shareholders who vote by correspondence (including those that abstained from voting on the draft of a certain resolution in accordance with these Articles of Association) are present at the general meeting. The information about the number and nominal value of the shares of the shareholder who cast his vote by correspondence shall be taken over from the list of shareholders as of the record date.

(11) A vote cast by correspondence by a shareholder cannot be changed once it becomes effective against the bank. The shareholder can, however, attend the general meeting in person or by proxy; in this case, the shareholder's vote cast by correspondence shall not be taken into account.

Section 6 Share in Profit

(1) The shareholder shall be entitled to a proportion of the Bank's profit (a dividend) which was approved for distribution to the Shareholders by the General Meeting taking into account the Bank's financial results and the payment of which was decided upon by the Board of Directors based on the fulfilment of the terms and conditions specified by the generally binding legal regulations. .

(2) The Board of Directors may give an order to the person authorized to maintain the central register of uncertificated securities for registration of separately transferable rights to a share in the profit payable.

(3) The record date to assert the right to a share in profit is the same as the record date for a shareholder to be entitled to attend the General Meeting. The right to a share in profit shall thus belong to any shareholder owning shares on the seventh calendar day prior to the date of the General Meeting which approved the share of the profit to be distributed among shareholders. The share in profit shall become payable upon expiration of thirty days following the date of the General Meeting which took the resolution on the distribution of profit.

The required documents shall be as follows: a request for the payment of a share in the profit containing the relevant banking details and an updated and officially verified statement from the competent public registry or another document proving the existence of the legal entity. The signature of a member of the shareholder's governing body (or its representative) subscribed at the request for the payment of a share in profit must be attested. In addition, if a shareholder is represented by another legal entity or natural person, such representative shall be obliged to deliver officially verified powers of attorney from all entities so represented with the exception of the security administrator entered in the central register of uncertificated securities, and its updated and officially verified excerpt from the relevant public register or another document proving its existence. If the excerpt from the issue's register only states the information about the share's administrator, the shareholder shall be obligated to submit a property account statement of the security's owner. The Bank shall not assume responsibility for the accuracy and completeness of the data stated by the shareholder.

(6) The Bank's obligation to pay the share in profit, in the event of a bank transfer, shall be discharged upon debiting the dividend from the Bank's account.

(7) The right to claim a share in profit shall lapse 3 years from the day when the shareholder learnt of the due date for the payment of the share in profit or when he could or should have learnt this, however, no later than within 10 years of the due date. .

(8) The information on the proposed profit share amount and the information about the method of its payment shall be published by the Board of Directors in the notice of General Meeting and on the Bank's website 30 days prior to the date of the General Meeting. Proposals and statements presented for discussion at the General Meeting along with the attendance sheet shall be attached to the minutes of the General Meeting. The minutes shall be signed by the minutes clerk and the Chairman of the General Meeting or the convener and the verifier or two elected verifiers.

(7) The minutes of the General Meeting together with the respective notice of the General Meeting and the list of the Attending Shareholders shall be kept in the Bank's archives throughout the Bank's existence. The liquidator shall arrange that such minutes are archived or kept in custody for a period of ten years following the winding-up of the Bank.

Constituting Quorum and Casting Votes at the General Meeting

(1) The General Meeting shall constitute a quorum if the Attending Shareholders hold shares whose total nominal value exceeds 30% of the registered capital of the Bank, provided that voting rights are attached thereto based on generally binding legal rules. Shareholders who are persons whose work has a substantial influence on the Bank's risk profile, who are directly concerned by the level of the proportion between the fixed and flexible compensation component under S. 9 (y) hereof and persons acting in concert with such shareholders may not exercise their voting right whenever the general meeting decides about matters listed in S. 9 (y) hereof. The number of votes belonging to a shareholder lacking the right to vote under the previous sentence shall not be taken into account for the purposes of determining the number of votes needed for the quorum of the general meeting and to adopt a specific resolution on matters specified in S. 9 (y).

(2) Should the General Meeting fail to constitute a quorum, the Board of Directors (or the Supervisory Board, should it be the convener of the General Meeting, or shareholders authorised by a court of justice to convene a General Meeting in accordance with the Corporations Act) shall convene a substitute General Meeting with the same agenda without undue delay if it is still necessary. The substitute General Meeting shall be convened by means of a new notice in the manner set out in Section 10, subsection (4) of the Articles of Association; the time limit so specified shall be shortened to fifteen days and the notice does not need to contain reasonable information about the core of the individual matters included in the General Meeting agenda. The substitute General Meeting shall be held no later than within six weeks of the date on which the originally convened General Meeting should have been held. The substitute General Meeting so convened shall have the same agenda and shall constitute a quorum irrespective of the provisions of Section 12, subsection (1).

(3) The General Meeting shall pass resolutions by majority of votes of the Attending Shareholders unless legal regulations or these Articles of Association require a qualified majority of votes. Resolutions of the General Meeting under S. 9 y) must obtain the consent of at least sixty-six percent of votes of the Attending Shareholders to be carried; all this provided that the general meeting is attended by shareholders who dispose of at least fifty percent of the voting rights in the Bank or, in the absence of the shareholders who dispose of at least fifty percent of the voting rights in the Bank, at least a three-quarter majority of the votes of the Attending Shareholders.

(4) When assessing the capacity of the General Meeting to make decisions and at each particular vote casting at the General Meeting, the shares with no voting rights or the shares where the voting rights cannot be exercised shall not be taken into account.

The term of office of a member of the Supervisory Board shall be four years. Two thirds of the members of the Supervisory Board shall be elected and removed by the General Meeting; one-third of the members of the Supervisory Board shall be elected and removed by Bank employees. Only employees who are employed by the Bank have a right to elect and remove members of the Supervisory Board elected by employees. (2) Any member of the Supervisory Board may resign from his membership; however, he may not do so at a time inopportune for the Bank. He shall be obliged to inform the Supervisory Board of his resignation. If the number of the Supervisory Board members does not fall below one half, the Supervisory Board may appoint, upon the proposal of the Nominations Committee of the Supervisory Board, substitute members to serve on the Supervisory Board until the forthcoming General Meeting; the substitute members shall substitute for the Supervisory Board members whose service terminated in a period between General Meetings. The time of service as a substitute member of the Supervisory Board is not counted as a part of the time of service as a member of the Supervisory Board.

(4) If a member of the Supervisory Board elected by employees dies, resigns, is removed by employees or if his membership terminates in another way, the Bank's Board of Directors shall be obliged to call a new election to substitute for such member and to elect a member of the Supervisory Board elected by employees within a period of two months.

Rights and Obligations of Members of the Supervisory Board

(1) The Supervisory Board shall exercise its rights either jointly through all its members or through its individual members. The Supervisory Board may decide that the exercise of the supervisory duties be divided among its members. The Supervisory Board shall inform the General Meeting and the Board of Directors thereof. The Supervisory Board members shall be entitled to enter the Bank's premises and to request relevant documents and records for supervisory purposes. This entitlement may only be used by the Supervisory Board members based on a decision of the Supervisory Board subject to cases where the Supervisory Board is unable to perform its duties. The division of the supervisory duties shall affect neither liability of the Supervisory Board member nor their right to perform other supervisory activities.

(2) The Supervisory Board shall be entitled to require that the Board of Directors members attend a meeting of the Supervisory Board and explain any matter relating to the Bank or its activities.

(3) The Supervisory Board shall observe all principles and instructions approved by the General Meeting insofar as they are in accordance with the generally binding legal regulations and the Articles of Association. Any breach of the approved principles or instructions shall not impact upon effectiveness of the Supervisory Board members' acts against third parties. No one shall be entitled to give the Supervisory Board instructions regarding its statutory duty to supervise the competence of the Board of Directors.

(4) Members of the Supervisory Board shall be obliged to exercise their range of powers with due care, which means with the necessary loyalty, knowledge and diligence, and always observe the Bank's best interests. They shall be obliged to maintain confidentiality regarding confidential information and facts that are subject to banking secrecy and other facts the disclosure of which to third parties might result in a loss to the Bank. Those members of the Supervisory Board who breached their duty of due care shall render the proceeds obtained by such conduct to the Bank. If the proceeds cannot be rendered, the Supervisory Board member shall reimburse the Bank with money. Further consequences of a breach of duties by the Supervisory Board members shall be specified by the Corporations Act or, as the case may be, by the Civil Code.

(5) A member of the Supervisory Board may not carry on a business activity which is identical with the business activity of the Bank even for the benefit of other persons, may not act as an intermediary for other persons in transactions with the Bank, may not participate in the business activity of another corporation as a partner with unlimited liability or as a person controlling other persons engaged in business identical with or similar to the business activities of the Bank, may not be a member of the governing body of another legal entity engaged in a similar business activity as the Bank or a person in a similar position, unless such legal entity is a holding-type group. Members of the Supervisory Board may conclude banking deals as individuals (clients) provided that such banking deals are concluded under the terms and conditions customary in trade.

(6) A member of the Supervisory Board may not concurrently serve on the bodies of other legal entities to an extent greater than serving in one position of executive member together with two positions of non-executive member or serving in four positions of non-executive member unless the Czech National Bank allows his serving in one more non-executive member position on a body of another legal entity. An executive member of a body means a member of a body holding an executive management position within the bank. Serving in one position means serving in the position of executive and non-executive member within the same group of the controlling bank; the same institutional protection system under Art. 113 (7) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council; and within a corporation in which the bank holds a qualified interest.

(7) The Bank shall be obliged to reimburse the Supervisory Board members for the expenses which have been necessary or which have been spent purposefully while serving as a member of the Supervisory Board.

(8) Should a member of the Supervisory Board cease to meet the terms and conditions required by the generally binding legal regulations and the Articles of Association to serve as a Supervisory Board member, such member shall be obliged to inform the Bank thereof in writing without delay.

This shall apply by analogy to the possible conflict of interest of the persons close to a Supervisory Board member or of the entities influenced or controlled by the Supervisory Board member, or where the actions of a Supervisory Board member are influenced by an influential or controlling entity. The Supervisory Board or the General Meeting may suspend the service of such Supervisory Board member for a specified period of time. The Supervisory Board member shall inform the General Meeting by applying to the Board of Directors of the Bank, either at a meeting of the Board of Directors or by written notice addressed to the Board of Directors to the address of the Bank's registered office, for convening a General Meeting in order to fulfill his disclosure duty. The Board of Directors is subsequently obliged to convene the General Meeting without undue delay to discuss the announced potential conflict of interest and to include, in accordance with the Corporations Act, in the General Meeting agenda the said discussion with a proposal for the possible ban to enter into a contract or to suspend his service under S. 54 (4) or S. 56 (2) of the Corporations Act.

resignation, unless the written letter of resignation specifies a later date. (6) Minutes shall be taken of the meetings of the Supervisory Board signed by the meeting chairman. The minutes shall contain the names of the Supervisory Board members who voted against individual decisions or who abstained from voting. (8) A meeting of the Supervisory Board may, in exceptional cases, be convened by means of communication media or in another suitable manner. All members of the Supervisory Board must be informed of the fact that such meeting is being convened. In this case, the seven-day time limit for the submission of documents does not apply and the documents may be submitted at the meeting itself.

(9) The Chairman or, in his absence, the Vice-Chairman, or, as the case may be, an authorised member of the Supervisory Board may request that members of the Supervisory Board take a decision remotely either in writing or by means of communication media. The decision may be taken remotely by the absent members of the Supervisory Board if the Supervisory Board holds a meeting, or by all members of the Supervisory Board if the Supervisory Board does not hold a meeting. All voting members of the Supervisory Board are regarded as present. If the Supervisory Board does not hold a meeting and votes by means of communication media, the voting results shall be recorded in minutes. If a member of the Supervisory Board votes on a decision remotely, he is deemed to consent to taking the decision remotely.

(10) Details of the conduct of the meetings shall be set forth in the Rules of Procedure of the Supervisory Board.

(11) Should the Risk Management Director come to the conclusion that a risk evolves in a way which has or which might have an adverse impact on the Bank, he shall, if needed, report his concerns including the reasons therefor to the Supervisory Board directly. In the case of findings with a potential significant negative impact on the Bank's financial situation, the Risk Management Director shall initiate an extraordinary meeting of the Supervisory Board which may be held based on a decision of the Supervisory Board or upon his justified proposal.

Committees of the Supervisory Board

(1) The Supervisory Board shall set up, within its terms of reference, an Audit Committee, a Risk Committee, a Nominations Committee, a Remuneration Committee and, as the case may be, other committees as its advisory and recommending bodies.

(2) The Audit Committee shall consist of at least three members and the majority of the Audit Committee members must be independent and professionally qualified. Members of the Audit Committee shall be elected by the General Meeting from the membership of the Supervisory Board or from third parties. The terms of reference, powers, composition, meeting and decision-making method and the incorporation of Supervisory Board Committees into the Bank's organization hierarchy and information flows shall be specified by the charter of each of the committees and by the Bank's internal regulations.

(5) The Supervisory Board Committees shall provide the Supervisory Board with regular reports on their activities and, regarding the areas in their range of powers, submit to the Supervisory Board their recommendations focusing on the preparation of decisions to be taken by the Supervisory Board.

Section 18 Board of Directors

(1) The Board of Directors is a governing body which manages the Bank's activities. The Board of Directors is charged with business management, including arrangements for proper maintenance of the accounting records of the Bank, the integrity of the accounting and financial reporting systems, the reliability of financial and operating checks, the continuous performance of activities and the permanent functioning of the Bank in the financial market in line with its business purpose and plan of activities. The Board of Directors shall ensure a continuous and effective performance of the risk management function, compliance function and internal audit function. The Board of Directors shall further ensure the creation of a complex and reasonable management and control system, its compliance with legal regulations, and be responsible for its continuous functioning and effectiveness. The Board of Directors shall ensure the setting and maintenance of the management and control system so as to ensure the adequacy of information and communication when conducting the Bank's operations.

(2) The Board of Directors shall observe the generally binding legal regulations, the Articles of Association, and the resolutions and instructions approved by the General Meeting, provided that these comply with legal regulations and the Articles of Association. Any breach of the approved instructions shall not impact upon effectiveness of the acts of the Board of Directors members against third parties.

(3) The way in which the members of the Board of Directors act on behalf of the Bank is set forth in Section 31 hereof.

(1) The Board of Directors consists of six members, natural persons, who meet the conditions provided in legal regulations and who are elected by an absolute majority of all Supervisory Board members at recommendation of its Nominations Committee. The term of office of the members of the Board of Directors shall be four years. Members of the Board of Directors serve in executive management positions within the Bank and are charged by the Board of Directors to manage selected arms.

(2) If a member of the Board of Directors dies, abdicates, is removed, or their term of office terminates otherwise, the Supervisory Board shall elect a new member of the Board of Directors no later than within two months from the date when the member's term of office expires or terminates otherwise.

(3) The Supervisory Board shall be whenever entitled to decide by the absolute majority of all its members to remove a member of the Board of Directors. The decision of the Supervisory Board is based on a proposal of the Nominations Committee of the Supervisory Board. The term of office of a member of the Board of Directors shall terminate upon delivery of the notice of removal, either in person or by mail to the address specified in the service contract unless a later date is specified in the removing notice. The notice of removal shall be deemed delivered also in the case when the document is returned to the Bank by the post office as undeliverable or when the Board of Directors member by their acting or failure to act shall prevent the delivery of the notice.

(4) Any member of the Board of Directors may resign from his membership; however, he may not do so at a time inopportune for the Bank. He shall resign by written notice delivered to the Bank's address or to the Supervisory Board at its meeting. In such case, his service terminates after a lapse of one month of the delivery of such notification, unless the Supervisory Board approves, upon request of this member, a different time of termination of his service.

(5) The Board of Directors shall elect from its membership a Chairman of the Board of Directors. If the Chairman of the Board of Directors fails to be elected, the Board of Directors shall authorize one of the members of the Board of Directors to serve as Chairman of the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board of Directors must be elected by an absolute majority of votes of all members of the Board of Directors.

(6) The Chairman of the Board of Directors may resign from his position of chairman by written notice delivered to the Board of Directors to the address of the Bank's registered office or directly to the Board of Directors at its meeting. His service as Chairman shall terminate the day when, at its closest meeting, the Board of Directors discusses the resignation, unless the written letter of resignation specifies a later date. The Board of Directors shall be authorized to withdraw the Chairman from his position by the absolute majority of votes of all members of the Board of Directors. If the Chairman ceases to be a member of the Board of Directors, he shall also cease to serve as its chairman.

(7) Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be regularly convened, at least 20 times a year, and chaired by its Chairman. Any member of the Board of Directors may ask that the Board of Directors meeting be convened provided that such member states reasons therefor. If the meeting is not convened within a period of five days from the delivery of the request to the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the said Board of Directors member shall be entitled to convene and chair the meeting himself.

(8) The meeting of the Board of Directors shall be convened in writing. Each member of the Board of Directors must receive an invitation with the documents to be discussed at least three calendar days prior to the date of the meeting. The invitation shall contain the place, date and agenda of the meeting. A matter not included in the agenda of the meeting of the Board of Directors shall be discussed by the Board of Directors only with the consent of all members of the Board of Directors.

(9) A meeting of the Board of Directors may exceptionally be convened by means of communication media or in another suitable manner. All members of the Board of Directors must be informed of the fact that such meeting is being convened. In this case, the three-day time limit for the presentation of documents shall not apply and the documents may be submitted at the meeting itself. Members of the Board of Directors may agree to hold regular meetings of the Board of Directors on agreed dates.

(10) The Board of Directors shall take their decisions as a collective body and constitute a quorum if an absolute majority of the Board members is present. Where the Board of Directors delegates the authority over certain activities of the Bank by its decision to the individual members of the Board of Directors, decisions on such matters shall be taken by the authorized member of the Board of Directors. One member of the Board of Directors shall always be charged to make legal acts towards employees. The distribution of authorities does not release other members of the Board of Directors from their duty to supervise the administration of the Bank's matters.

(11) Resolutions of the Board of Directors shall be adopted by the absolute majority of members of the Board of Directors present.

(12) The Chairman or, in his absence, an authorised member of the Board of Directors may request that members of the Board of Directors take a decision remotely either in writing or by means of communication media. The decision may be taken remotely by the absent members of the Board of Directors if the Board of Directors holds a meeting or by all members of the Board of Directors if the Board of Directors does not hold a meeting. another legal entity engaged in a similar business activity as the Bank or an entity in a similar position, unless such legal entity is a holding-type group. Members of the Board of Directors may conclude banking deals as individuals (clients) unless they conclude such banking deal in the name of the Bank and provided that such banking deal is concluded under the terms and conditions customary in trade.

(4) Furthermore, a member of the Board of Directors may not concurrently serve on the bodies of other legal entities to an extent greater than serving in one position of executive member together with two positions of non-executive member or serving in four positions of non-executive member unless the Czech National Bank allows his serving in one more non-executive member position on a body of another legal entity. An executive member of a body means a member of a body holding an executive management position within the bank. Serving in one position means serving in the position of executive and non-executive member within the same group of the controlling bank; the same institutional protection system under Art. 113 (7) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council; and within a corporation in which the bank holds a qualified interest.

(5) The Board of Directors shall convene the General Meeting without undue delay when it ascertains that a settlement of a loss shown in any of the financial statements from the Bank's disposable funds would still leave an unsettled amount representing a half of the Bank's registered capital, or when this could be expected taking into account all the circumstances, or for another serious reason, in which case it will recommend that the General Meeting would wind up the Bank with liquidation or adopt another suitable measure, unless special legal regulations specify otherwise.

(6) The Board of Directors shall be obliged to file without undue delay an insolvency petition with the competent court provided that the terms and conditions stated by the generally binding legal regulations have been met. Should the members of the Board of Directors fail to comply with the above obligation, they shall be liable to the creditors for any damage or other loss caused by a breach of this duty.

(7) Any person who is to become a member of the Board of Directors shall inform the Bank of any obstacles to his service under the Corporations Act. Should a member of the Board of Directors cease to meet the terms and conditions required by the generally binding legal regulations and the Articles of Association to serve as a Board member, he shall be obliged to inform the Bank thereof in writing without delay.

(8) Should a member of the Board of Directors learn that a conflict of interest with the interests of the Bank under the Corporations Act may occur during his service, he shall inform the other members of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board thereof without undue delay. This shall apply by analogy to the possible conflict of interest of the persons close to a member of the Board of Directors or of the entities influenced or controlled by the member of the Board of Directors, or where the actions of a member of the Board of Directors are influenced by an influential or controlling entity. The Supervisory Board may suspend the service of such member for a specified period of time or ban entering into a contract which is not in the Bank's interest.

(9) Should, due to positions held in another legal entity, a member of the Board of Directors get into even a possible conflict of interest with the interest of the Bank, he shall inform the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board thereof and abstain from voting on any matters relating to the Bank's relation to such entity.

In the case that the general meeting decides to increase the registered capital asserting the pre-emptive right of shareholders, each shareholder shall have a pre-emptive right to subscribe for a part of the Bank's new shares, if these are intended to increase the registered capital, such part being proportionate to his share provided that such shares are to be subscribed for by money.
